

The San Fernando Valley Chapter of CSEA in conjunction with ClientWhys presents the 1040 Review & Update Seminar

November 5 and 6, 2015 at the Airtel Plaza Hotel
*Register Early and Save!

If this last tax season is an indication, being prepared for tax season is your #1 job during the off-season. Complex returns and never-ending tax law changes are the norm. Cutting back on continuing education or looking for the easy way are no longer options for top-shelf tax professionals. You need a continuing education provider who knows the hot issues and supports you year round. You need a vendor who provides you the tools to manage client meetings so you can answer questions before the client leaves.

ClientWhys Tax Update & Review Seminar breaks down complex issues in an easy-to-follow format. The take-home textbook (more than 900 pages) is free for all attendees. In addition, you'll get:

- Searchable Big Book of Taxes eBook for year-round research
- A-Team speakers, including Matt Brodie, CPA; Lee Reams, EA; and Art Werner, JD
- We address the troublesome areas most encountered by professionals throughout the year
- Highlights of tax strategies that will benefit your clients and make you a hero
- Free access to our ClientWhys Connect Technical Support Forum
- A two-day live presentation - 16 hours of CPE
- Includes on-line supplemental self-study courses (for a grand total of up to 29 CPE hours)
- Ten convenient California locations
- CPE accredited for CPAs, EAs, CFPs and CTEC Tax Professionals

Registration Information:

$340 for registrations received by June 1

$350 for registrations received by August 31

$370 for registrations received September 1 and after

Your Chapter Also Benefits – In a revenue sharing agreement with your chapter, a portion of your registration fee goes to your chapter.
